

International IVI Congress
Reproductive
Medicine and Beyond
Bilbao, Spain May 11-13 2017 | ivi2017.com

Welcome Note

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Following the success of our six previous IVI Congresses, we are pleased to invite you to the 7th International IVI Congress to be held in Bilbao, Spain, May 11-13, 2017.

Our aim is to continue providing top-level reproductive medicine congresses, addressing cutting edge topics in this continuously evolving field of human reproduction and offering the most reputable international speakers available.

Bilbao is the main city and capital of the province of Bizkaia, in northern Spain. Bilbao is a very accessible city, close to the sea and receives a great deal of tourism, especially due to the Guggenheim museum, an international reference point for art lovers. The cuisine and restaurant scene of Bilbao are also one of its irresistible attractions.

We very much hope you enjoy Bilbao, a fun, modern and cosmopolitan city, along with the warmth of its people.

Welcome to the 7th International IVI Congress!

Prof. Antonio Pellicer
